An Ace Match in Geneva!

Russell Bedford Fiduciaire Genève SA was proud to be the main sponsor of the ATP Geneva Tennis Open 2024.

Set against the stunning backdrop of Lake Geneva, the crowds watched Casper Ruud claim the title for the third time, although they were thrilled to see a last-minute entry to the tournament from world number one, Novak Djokovic.

In attendance was Russell Bedford International CEO, Stephen Hamlet, invited by the sponsors, Russell Bedford Fiduciaire Genève SA.

Founded in 1987, Russell Bedford Fiduciaire Genève SA is an independent trust company in Geneva, Switzerland, offering a wide range of expert services including audit, tax, and business advice. During his visit, Stephen Hamlet toured their office and met with their new CEO, Isabelle Azrak-Poznansky.

“It was a wonderful spectacle of the game of tennis by such talented players and an honour to see our brand promoted so heavily around the court,” said Stephen. “Thank you very much to Nabil-Jean Sab, chairman of Russell Bedford Fiduciaire Genève SA, for such hospitality and generosity.”

Russell Bedford is looking forward to next year's event – and that is Game, Set, and Match!

Russell Bedford Cares... in Brazil

Supporting the flood relief efforts in Brazil

Since May 2024, heavy rains have devastated the state of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, displacing over half a million people from their homes.

In response to this disaster, Russell Bedford International, in solidarity with our offices in Brazil, is donating to local charities working on the ground through this year's Russell Bedford Cares programme.

Russell Bedford Brazil has nine locations across the country, with over 300 employees, and serving more than 700 clients across the private and public sector. Unfortunately, the headquarters in Porto Alegre was seriously affected by the floods and many of our colleagues have lost their homes.

Bruno Celidonio, International Manager at Russell Bedford Brazil said “it is devastating to witness the widespread impact of the floods. We hope our teams and everyone in the affected areas are able to stay safe. We deeply appreciate the support from our international Russell Bedford network.”

Beyond our financial contribution, Russell Bedford International extends our heartfelt gratitude to all those on the ground – from the rescue workers distributing essential aid, to the Brazilian athletes who have given up their dreams of competing in the Olympics to assist in the relief efforts.

It is always our mission to seek to make a difference to enable work to happen towards a more sustainable future for us all. Our core values of connectivity, collaboration, and making a positive impact, guide our actions, and the Russell Bedford Cares initiative for Brazil is a testament to these principles.

Stephen Hamlet, CEO of Russell Bedford International said “every year we make a contribution through the Russell Bedford Cares programme to causes that desperately need help. When we first established the programme, we had no idea what situations would arise around the world. We are glad that we have a programme that is ready to respond, and together with others, we can really make a difference.”

Russell Bedford welcomes León and Aguascalientes practices to the international network.

Russell Bedford International has announced the appointment of two more Mexican firms as members of the global professional services network.

Russell Bedford León, previously called BTM León and originally known as Sanchez Obregón y Asociados, was founded in the 1970s and is based in León, Mexico's fourth largest city, located in the northwestern state of Guanajuato.

The firm joins Russell Bedford from one of the top-10 global networks.

With a team of three partners and nearly 40 personnel in total, Russell Bedford León currently serves over 200 clients spanning the industrial, commercial, and service sectors. They provide a multidisciplinary offering of audit, tax, legal, customs, and accounting services.

In addition, Russell Bedford Aguascalientes has been a branch of Russell Bedford Mexico City for more than ten years. Based in Aguascalientes, 500km northwest of the federal capital, the firm was founded in 2010 originally as a two-partner audit, tax, and bookkeeping practice.

Having combined with a team from another substantial local firm, led by Rogelio Villanueva, there are now nine partners and more than 90 personnel at Russell Bedford Aguascalientes, making it one of the largest CPA practices in the vicinity. Adding to a full spectrum of tax, accounting, and audit services, they also offer a range of specialist skills, such as transfer pricing, valuation, and international trade; and serve over 350 corporate clients, including subsidiaries of foreign publicly listed companies and various Public Interest Entities.
